IX.

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by the Board of Directors or by a majority vote of the members of the Corporation, provided, however, that no such amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be effective unless adopted pursuant to Article XI hereinafter.

X.

Section 1. No officer, director or member shall be personally liable for any debt or other obligation of the corporation, except as provided in the proposed Declaration of Condominium.

Section 2. Each member shall be restricted to one (1) vote, except in all elections for Directors, each member shall have the right of cumulative voting; that is to say, each member shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, for as many persons as there are Directors to be elected, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall see fit.

Section 3. A membership may be owned by more than one owner, provided that membership shall be held in the same manner as title to the unit. In the event ownership is in more than one (1) person, all of the owners of such membership shall be entitled collectively to only one (1) voice or ballot in the management of the affairs of the Corporation in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium, and the vote may not be divided between plural owners of a single membership.

Section 4. The members of this Corporation shall be subject to assessment for the costs and expenses of the Corporation in operating the multi-unit building, in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws of the Corporation. The By-Laws of the Corporation may not change or alter this Section 4, Article X.

Section 5. The Corporation shall not be operated for profit, no dividends shall be paid, and no part of the income of the Corporation shall be distributed to its members, Directors or Officers.

Section 6. The members of the Corporation, individually, are responsible for all maintenance and repair within and about their condominium unit.

Section 7. Any matter of controversy or dispute between members or between a member and the Corporation shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules therefor provided by the American Arbitration Association and the Statutes of the State of Florida.

Section 8. The members of this Corporation shall be subject to all of the terms, conditions, restrictions and covenants contained in the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws of the Corporation.

XI.

These Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation may not be amended, altered, modified, changed or rescinded by a vote of less than three-fourths (3/4) of the then present members of the Corporation, which may be accomplished at any regular or special meeting of the Corporation, provided that written notice of the proposed change shall have been mailed to each member of the Corporation, ten (10) days prior to said meeting of the Corporation, provided, however, that no such alteration, amendment, modification, change or rescission of Article II hereinabove and of Sections 4, 5, 6 and 8 of Article X may be made without the unanimous approval of the then members of the Corporation, together with the written unanimous approval of all mortgagees holding a valid enforceable first mortgage lien against any condominium unit, provided such mortgagees are institutional mortgagees such as a bank, savings and loan association or insurance company authorized to transact business in the State of Florida.

XII.

This Corporation shall provided and may contract for recreational facilities to be used by the condominium unit owners for recreational and social purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the subscribing incorporators have hereunto set their hands and seals and caused these Articles of Incorporation to be executed this 29th day of June, 1965.
